

Glencore CEZinc

CEZinc is the largest primary zinc processing facility in eastern North America. Established in Quebec since 1963, the refinery has grown steadily and has quadrupled its refined zinc production, making it one of the top ten global leaders in the industry today. Between 2002 and 2014, CEZinc has invested more than $302 million in maintaining and improving its facilities.