

Training

SIM offers a wide range of health and safety courses, whose contents have been validated by the major contractors in Québec and which enable subcontractors who have taken them to access contractor facilities. SIM also gives business courses, either general or adapted to the specific context of each company and, as required, develops customized courses. Our health and safety courses are offered in two distribution methods: traditional or via the web and E-learning.

Training catalogue