

Skills Management Software

Cognibox GC is an online management solution for employee training and skills (Human resources). Cognibox GC is intended for companies that want to efficiently manage staff training and skills. This is a unique solution created by business training experts who will advise and support you throughout its implementation and operation.

Cognibox GC is the most advanced solution for skills and training management. Cognibox GC enables individual requirements analysis, by position, by department, or by complete business unit. It integrates comparative analysis functionalities that quickly display requirements and proficiency levels for individuals, groups, positions, etc.

User-friendly, its structure allows the managers involved, from HR specialist to supervisor, easy and direct access to the positions and employee groups that concern them.

To know more about Cognibox!