

PERFORMANCE
AND DILIGENCE

Electrical Hazards in Potrooms

Description

...

Target audience

Any person, employee, contractor who must perform work in potrooms area.

Objectives

- Provide participants the knowledge of electrical hazards and their origin. After this training the participant will be able to work safely, close to the electrolytic cells;
- Raise awareness of the risks and the danger of electric shock and compliance with the regulation relating to security.

Course Content

- Ohm's Law (Ω);
- Analogy with potrooms;
- The required equipment to ensure safety;
- The human body and the electric current;
- The working environment in the halls.

Educational Approach

Presentations, class participation, video and quiz

Evaluation

No evaluation required for this training.