

PERFORMANCE
AND DILIGENCE

Aerospace Training - Common Certification in Health, Safety and the Environment

Objectives

- Recognize the role of the person responsible for the works;
- Know the general working rules;
- Know the health & safety working rules;
- Know the fire prevention rules;
- Know the rules for the protection of the environment.

Course content

- General rules:
(Individual protection equipment; setting off of alarms; first aid; working incidents, etc.)
- Health & safety requirements:
(Prevention program; training of entrepreneurs and suppliers; holding of places, etc.)
- Fire prevention requirements:
(Welding or works generating sparks; compressed gas bottles; storing of propane cylinders, etc.)
- Environmental requirements:
(Use of chemical products; managing residues; sewer backup, etc.)