

Training outsource

SIM is able to take on the provision and creation of training related to subcontractor management. From content creation to production and training delivery, SIM offers you a solution adapted to your needs, up to and including turnkey service.

The training outsource service for subcontractor management is available for:

- Orientation (physical or via E-learning);
- Contractor training;
- Training during planned downtimes (shutdowns);
- Definition of training requirements;
- Training design and delivery;
- Complete management and planning for multi-enterprise training.